

EVENT REGULATIONS

"ARABIAN HORSE DAYS"

7–12 August 2025

§1 General Provisions

These Event Regulations (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations") have been drawn up in accordance with applicable law, in particular the provisions of the Civil Code Act of 23 April 1964 (i.e. Journal of Laws of 2023, item 1610, as amended).

The Regulations are issued by the event organizer – Krysiak Polska Sp. z o.o., with its registered office in Warsaw, Pl. J.H. Dąbrowskiego 1, 00-057 Warsaw, entered in the Register of Entrepreneurs of the National Court Register, hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer".

The event titled "Arabian Horse Days" (hereinafter referred to as the "Event") will take place from 7 to 12 August 2025 at Janów Podlaski Stud Ltd., ul. Wygoda 3, 21-505 Janów Podlaski. The following activities will be held during the Event:

- UAE Cup – 7 August 2025;
- National Arabian Horse Show – 8–10 August 2025;
- "Pride of Poland" Auction – 10 August 2025 (mass event – separate regulations apply);
- Summer Sale – 11 August 2025;
- Breeder's Parade – 12 August 2025;

For the purposes of these Regulations:

- "Security Services" and "Information Services" refer to individuals designated by the Organizer (including security staff) with appropriate identification, responsible for maintaining order and safety during the Event;
- "Event Area" refers to the area made available by the Organizer to participants, where the events listed above take place;
- "Participant" means any natural person attending the Event with a valid ticket or Organizer-issued ID.

These Regulations apply to all persons present within the Event Area for the entire duration of the Event.

The aim of these Regulations is to ensure proper organizational order, the safety of participants, and to define participation rules, including the rights and obligations of Participants.

Purchasing a ticket or participating in the Event constitutes acceptance of the Regulations.

Each Participant is obliged to comply with the Regulations and to follow instructions issued by the Security and Information Services.

§2 Rules for Participation in the Event

Entry to the Event Area is permitted only to persons holding a valid ticket or a personalized ID issued by the Organizer. Minors who are at least 16 years old on the day of the Event may attend on their own. Younger individuals – under the age of 16 – may be present at the Event only under the constant supervision of an adult who assumes full responsibility for their safety and behavior.

A ticket entitles the holder to a single entry to the Event Area. In the event of leaving the area, re-entry is only possible with the same valid ticket, provided it has not been deactivated.

Depending on the ticket category, Participants may receive an additional identifier, such as a wristband or badge, which allows access to designated areas according to the type of ticket.

The Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Event without prior notice in situations beyond its control. In such cases, only the face value of the ticket and any service fees (if collected) will be refunded. The Organizer is not liable for any other costs incurred by the Participant.

The Organizer reserves the right to change the date and/or location of the Event if justified by serious circumstances – in particular in cases of threats to health or life, natural disasters, national mourning, unavailability of key individuals involved in the Event, or other valid organizational reasons.

The Organizer may make changes to the Event program due to technical, organizational, or artistic reasons without prior notice. Such changes do not constitute grounds for claims, complaints, or ticket refunds.

Information about changes in the date, location, or cancellation of the Event will be published on the Organizer's official communication channels and sent electronically to those who purchased tickets and provided contact details.

In the event of a change in the Event date, Participants may:

- a) keep their ticket and attend on the new date;
- b) withdraw and receive a refund for the ticket and service fee.

If the Participant chooses to keep the ticket, its validity is automatically extended regardless of any price changes for the new date.

If the Participant decides to withdraw after a date change, the refund will be made according to the same rules as a full Event cancellation. The refund period begins upon receipt of a written withdrawal statement.

If no option is chosen at least 30 days before the rescheduled Event date, it is assumed the Participant will attend. After this deadline, no refund will be possible due to logistical planning and limited capacity.

§3 Safety Rules

To ensure the safety of all participants, it is strictly prohibited to bring or possess the following items or substances within the Event Area:

- a) any kind of weapons, sharp objects, or items that could pose a threat;
- b) pyrotechnic materials (e.g. firecrackers, flares, fireworks) or explosives;
- c) flammable, corrosive, or otherwise dangerous liquids or substances;
- d) spray paints, dyes, aerosols, and substances that could damage or dirty infrastructure;
- e) any form of alcohol;
- f) beverages in glass or PET containers larger than 0.75 liters, and canned drinks. Beverages up to 0.75 l are allowed only in originally sealed packaging;
- g) psychoactive substances, drugs, or any illegal substances;
- h) symbols, clothing, or banners with aggressive, provocative, racist, xenophobic, ideological, or political content;
- i) drones, flying toys, and recording devices that disrupt the Event;
- j) bags, suitcases, backpacks, and other luggage exceeding A4 size;
- k) helium balloons, laser pointers, megaphones, sirens, and other loud devices.

It is also forbidden to:

- a) bring dogs or other animals (except for assistance dogs for persons with disabilities, with appropriate certification);
- b) conduct commercial, service, or promotional activities without the Organizer's prior written consent;
- c) wear outfits containing metal or potentially dangerous elements;
- d) smoke tobacco products, e-cigarettes, or heated tobacco outside designated areas;
- e) enter the stage, technical areas, control zones, technical platforms, or any restricted areas;
- f) light fires, damage decor or infrastructure, or litter the Event Area;
- g) relieve oneself outside designated toilets;
- h) block evacuation routes, emergency exits, or walkways;
- i) misuse Event equipment;
- j) use physical violence or threaten other participants, staff, or security services.

The Organizer reserves the right to deny entry or order immediate removal from the Event Area of persons who:

- a) are under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants;
- b) possess prohibited items listed above;
- c) behave aggressively, vulgarly, provocatively, or pose a danger to others;
- d) refuse to present an ID when requested by authorized personnel.

All participants and individuals within the Event Area must strictly follow instructions from the Information and Security Services, as well as from the Safety Manager.

The Organizer is not responsible for personal belongings brought to the Event, including money, electronics, documents, or other valuables.

Participants denied entry or removed due to violations listed in this section are not entitled to ticket refunds or any compensation claims.

§4 Rights and Obligations of Event Participants

Each Event Participant is obliged to:

- a) comply with these Regulations and generally applicable laws;
- b) behave in a manner that does not disturb public order or disrupt the Event;
- c) remain only in areas clearly designated as accessible to the public;
- d) carry a valid ID and present it upon request by Security or Information Services;
- e) refrain from any actions that may endanger other participants;
- f) follow all instructions issued by persons authorized to supervise order – in particular Security and Information Services, as well as Police, Fire Department, Border Guard, Military Police, or other law enforcement services.

Participants have the right to:

- a) be present in the Event Area during its duration, i.e., from the time the venue is opened by the Organizer until the official end of the Event;
- b) actively participate in the Event, express emotions and experiences in a manner that does not disturb order and respects the dignity of others;
- c) bring food for personal consumption, provided it does not violate these Regulations or safety rules.

Participants also have the right to:

- a) report any damage or violations experienced in the Event Area to the Organizer – directly or via Security or Information Services;
- b) submit feedback, complaints, and grievances in accordance with the procedure outlined later in these Regulations or in compliance with applicable legal provisions.

§5 Recording and Photographing the Event

Participants are allowed to take photos and record video or audio materials for private use only. These activities must not disrupt the Event or infringe on the rights of other participants, artists, or third parties.

The right to professionally record the Event, including taking photos and recordings for press purposes, is reserved solely for journalists and media representatives with valid accreditation issued by the Organizer. The terms of accreditation and scope of permissions are determined individually by the Organizer prior to the Event.

The Organizer, Janów Podlaski Stud Ltd., and other authorized entities have the right to record the Event – including participants' image, voice, and statements – in the form of photographic, audio, and audiovisual materials.

Participation in the Event constitutes the Participant's voluntary and unpaid consent to the use and dissemination of their image, voice, and statements by the Organizer and cooperating entities for documentation, promotional, marketing, and informational purposes – without time or territorial limitations.

The Participant acknowledges that the recorded material may be published on the official websites of the Organizer and Janów Podlaski Stud Ltd., as well as in social media, press, television, or other media channels – without any right to compensation.

The capturing of participants' likeness is based on Article 81(2)(2) of the Polish Copyright and Related Rights Act of 4 February 1994, which states that consent is not required if the person is a detail of a larger whole, such as a gathering, landscape, public event, or performance.

§6 Organizational and Order Rules in the Event Area

The Organizer ensures the safety of individuals participating in the Event and maintains order during its duration by fulfilling legal obligations, particularly through:

- a) appointing and providing Security and Information Services, clearly marked and distinguishable from Participants;
- b) designating a Safety Manager responsible for coordinating security and informational activities within their legal competencies;
- c) ensuring the presence of qualified medical staff and properly equipped sanitary facilities.

To ensure organizational transparency, the Organizer divides the Event Area into the following functional zones:

- a) Public Zone, including:
 - i) Audience Area – seating areas available to the public (e.g., stands);
 - ii) Forecourt – areas intended for standing participation (e.g., in front of the stage);
- b) Production Zone, including:
 - i) technical, social, and production facilities;
 - ii) other restricted areas not accessible to Participants.

The Organizer provides fire safety by:

- a) training staff and security personnel on fire equipment locations and emergency procedures;

b) ensuring access to hydrants, fire extinguishers, and evacuation plans in accordance with fire regulations.

Security and Information Services are trained in:

- a) evacuation procedures;
- b) emergency services notification protocols;
- c) use of portable fire equipment;
- d) procedures for the protection of persons and property.

Acting under the Mass Events Safety Act, Security and Information Services have the right to:

- a) verify authorization to access specific Event zones;
- b) request that unauthorized individuals leave the Event Area;
- c) check Participant identity;
- d) inspect baggage or clothing if there is reasonable suspicion of prohibited items;
- e) issue order-related instructions and request Participants to leave if non-compliant;
- f) apply direct coercive measures in accordance with the Acts of 22 August 1997 on the protection of persons and property, and 24 May 2013 on coercive measures and firearms;
- g) detain individuals posing a direct threat to life, health, or property, for immediate handover to the Police.

Security and Information Services may monitor the number of persons within any zone and, if capacity is exceeded, may temporarily restrict access until a safe occupancy level is restored.

§7 Criminal Liability under the Mass Events Safety Act

According to Article 54(1) of the Act, any person who fails to comply with an order issued under the Act by the Organizer or authorized services is subject to arrest, restriction of liberty, or a fine.

Under Article 59 of the Act, bringing or possessing weapons, explosives, pyrotechnic products, or fire-hazardous substances in the Event Area constitutes a criminal offense and is punishable by arrest or imprisonment.

Individuals who persistently or flagrantly violate the rules applicable during the Event will be removed from the Event Area and, in justified cases, handed over to the Police for criminal prosecution.

Any violation of safety and public order rules in the Event Area may serve as grounds for initiating criminal or administrative proceedings against the perpetrator by the appropriate state authorities.

§8 Personal Data

1. The sale of VIP packages, which include, among others, seating at a table during the auction, transportation and hotel accommodation, is conducted directly by the Event Organizer – Krysiak Polska Sp. z o.o., with its registered office in Warsaw, at Pl. J.H. Dąbrowskiego 1, 00-057 Warsaw, entered into the Register of Entrepreneurs of the National Court Register.
2. VIP packages can be purchased exclusively by completing the registration form available on the official event website: <https://www.polisharabianhorsedays.com>.
3. The number of VIP packages is limited and subject to availability, based on the order of applications and confirmation by the Organizer.
4. Detailed information regarding the contents of the VIP package, payment terms and reservation procedure is published on the above-mentioned website.

§8 Personal Data

The Organizer of the Event and the personal data controller within the meaning of Article 4(7) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (GDPR) is Krysiak Polska Sp. z o.o., with its registered office at Pl. J.H. Dąbrowskiego 1, 00-057 Warsaw, Poland.

All matters related to the processing of personal data and the exercise of data subject rights can be directed to the Administrator's registered office address or via email: biuro@krysiakpolska.pl (or another valid address indicated by the Administrator).

Personal data are processed for the purpose of performing the agreement concluded with the Participant, particularly in relation to: event registration, participation confirmation, communication of organizational information, and compliance with the Administrator's legal obligations. The legal basis is Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR.

Data may also be processed for documentation, marketing, and promotional purposes related to the Event and the Administrator's activities, based on Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR.

Regarding the capturing of Participants' image, voice, or statements during the Event, data are processed under Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR in connection with Article 81(2)(2) of the Polish Copyright and Related Rights Act of 4 February 1994. Participation implies consent to the recording and distribution of the Participant's image for documentation and promotional purposes without additional remuneration.

Data are also processed for the Administrator's legitimate interests, including claim protection and compliance with tax regulations, under Articles 6(1)(f) and 6(1)(c) of the GDPR.

Data may be disclosed to entities supporting the Administrator in legal, accounting, IT, HR, marketing, and technical services, on the basis of appropriate data processing agreements, as well as to entities entitled by law.

The Administrator does not intend to transfer data to third countries or international organizations within the meaning of the GDPR.

Data will be stored for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes for which they were collected, including:

- a) until the expiration of claims arising from the agreement;
- b) for accounting records – as specified by tax regulations;
- c) for recordings and promotional materials – during their use and later for archiving without a defined period.

Personal data will not be subject to automated decision-making, including profiling.

Data subjects have the following rights:

- a) right of access to data (Article 15 GDPR);
- b) right to rectification (Article 16 GDPR);
- c) right to erasure or restriction of processing (Articles 17 and 18 GDPR);
- d) right to object to processing (Article 21 GDPR);
- e) right to data portability (Article 20 GDPR).

If processing is based on consent, the data subject may withdraw consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

If a data subject believes that their data are being processed unlawfully, they have the right to file a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

Providing personal data is voluntary, but failure to do so may prevent participation in the Event.

§9 Complaint Procedure

Participants have the right to file complaints regarding the course or organization of the Event. Complaints must be submitted in writing to the Organizer's correspondence address indicated in §1(2) of these Regulations within 21 (twenty-one) calendar days from the end of the Event.

A complaint should include at least:

- a) the full name of the complainant;

- b) correspondence address;
- c) a precise description of the complaint with justification;
- d) a clear statement of the complainant's request.

The Organizer will consider the complaint promptly, but no later than within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of its proper delivery. The Participant will be informed of the outcome in writing to the address provided in the complaint submission.

The complaint procedure described above is voluntary and does not exclude or limit the Participant's right to pursue claims through legal proceedings.

§10 Final Provisions

The decision to participate in the Event constitutes the Participant's voluntary declaration to attend under the conditions set forth in these Regulations.

Participants are required to exercise particular caution in secured areas and especially to avoid entering restricted zones. Violations of these rules may pose a danger to their own life or health or that of others.

Identification badges allowing access to restricted areas remain the property of the Organizer and are issued only to authorized persons, particularly members of the technical, production, and promotional staff.

Badges must be worn visibly at all times and may not be transferred to third parties. They may only be used by the individual to whom they were issued.

The badge entitles the holder to move only within the scope of the granted access rights and in accordance with these Regulations.

The full text of these Regulations is available:

- a) at all entry points to the Event Area;
- b) in electronic form on the Organizer's official website.

For matters not covered by these Regulations, applicable Polish law shall apply, particularly the Act of 20 March 2009 on the safety of mass events and the Civil Code.

These Regulations shall enter into force on 30 June 2025.

ORGANIZER:

Krysiak Polska Sp. z o.o.

Pl. J.H. Dąbrowskiego 1, 00-057 Warsaw